no26

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor, under the provisions of the "Counties Definition Amendment Act, 1897," and the "Supreme Court Act" and amendment Acts, has been pleased to make the following Rules, Regulations and Rules of Court respecting Registrars, and proceedings in Sub-Registraries of the Supreme Court.

Provincial Secretary's Office,

9th December, 1897.

RULES, REGULATIONS AND RULES OF COURT RESPECTING REGISTRARS AND PROCEEDINGS IN SUB-REGISTRARIES OF THE SUPREME COURT.

1. Each Sub-Registry shall be known by the title of "The 'Rossland' (or other local description) Sub-Registry of the _____ Judicial District."

2. In each Sub-Registry there shall be a Registrar and such Deputies or Assistants as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may appoint.

3. Each Sub-Registry shall have and use such seal as is provided by the Order in Council establishing the Sub-Registry or by Rules of Court from time to time in force.

4. Writs of summons and other process may be issued out of, and all proceedings taken and had in, a Sub-Registry as if the Sub-Registry were a separate District Registry of the Supreme Court, and all Statutes and Rules of Court relating to District Registraries shall, mutatis mutandis, be applied to proceedings in a Sub-Registry.

5. A Judge may at any time, by special order, direct that any process may be issued, or proceedings had or taken, in the Registry whereof the Sub-Registry is a branch, and anything done in pursuance of such order shall be valid and effectual accordingly.

6. Any motions or other applications in Court or in Chambers may, by leave of a Judge, be heard at the main Registry or in any other Sub-Registry in the same Judicial District.

7. The Registrar of a Sub-Registry shall have the same powers as a District Registrar of the Supreme Court, and generally perform such duties in respect of any proceedings in the Supreme Court pending in the Sub-Registry as heretofore have or might have been performed by the Registrar of the main Registry in like cases, or as may be assigned to him by Rules of Court or these Rules with respect to proceedings in his Sub-Registry, or to anything to be done in his Sub-Registry in connection with proceedings pending in any other Registry or Sub-Registry.

8. On these Rules coming into force in any Sub-Registry, an order may be procured by either party transferring to such Sub-Registry any cause, action or matter which, in the opinion of a Judge, may be more conveniently carried on in such Sub-Registry. de9

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
16th December, 1897.

THE PUBLIC OFFICES of the Provincial Government will be closed on Friday and Saturday, the 24th and 25th instant, and on Friday the 31st instant, and Saturday the 1st proximo.

By Command.

JAMES BAKER,
Provincial Secretary.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

No. 50/97.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF THE INCORPORATION OF THE "ARROWHEAD SAW AND PLANING MILLS, LIMITED."

Capital, $15,000.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Arrowhead Saw and Planing Mills, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies' Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of fifteen thousand dollars, divided into one thousand five hundred shares of ten ($10.00) each.

The registered office of the Company will be situate in Arrowhead, in the District of Kootenay, British Columbia.

The objects for which the company has been established are:

(1.) To carry on the lumber trade in all its branches, and also the business of millers, manufacturers of and dealers in all description of wood products, and to acquire water privileges and rights of way, construct, build and maintain ditches, flumes, roads, tramways, water-works, reservoirs, filter beds, dams, banks, aqueducts, culverts, sluices, water-courses:

(2.) To purchase, lease, mortgage, hold and acquire timber limits, lands, buildings, docks, wharves, and all real and personal estate, or any interest therein, and to erect buildings or works on, fence, clear, improve, develop, lease, sell, traffic in, deal with or otherwise turn to account any lands or hereditaments or property of the Company:

(3.) To carry on the business of general traders, merchants and manufacturers:

(4.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, and to hold, work, manage, improve, sell and turn to account any lands, tenements, timber limits and leases, water-rights and privileges, and to sell, manage, lease, sublet, or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(5.) To erect, construct, acquire by purchase or otherwise, operate, equip, and maintain, aid to, or subscribe towards the construction of or maintenance of mills and factories of every kind and description, works, buildings, reservoirs, steam and sailing vessels, and vessels and boats of every description, roads, railways, tramways, canals, wharves, piers, landing places, telegraphs, telephones, gas works, rolling stock, machinery, plant, and all other things which may be necessary and convenient, and which may or might be a source of profit to the Company, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof, or of any interest therein:

(6.) To use steam, water, electricity, or any other power, as a motive power or otherwise:

(7.) To apply for, take, accept, hold, sell, dispose of and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations or other securities of any other company or companies, corporation or corporations, individual or individuals, as they may think fit:

(8.) To make, draw, accept and indorse, execute and deal with and in promissory notes, cheques, bills of exchange, and all kinds of negotiable instruments:

(9.) To purchase, take, lease or exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property which may seem to the Company conducive to its objects, directly or indirectly, or capable of becoming profitably dealt with in connection with the Company's objects, property and rights:

(10.) To act as factors or agents in relation to the purchase, sale, receipt or disposition of all kinds of produce, goods, wares and merchandise:

(11.) To enter into any agreement or agreements with any Government, supreme, local, municipal or otherwise, which may seem beneficial to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government, or authority, any subsidy, rights or privileges that the Company may deem it advisable to obtain, and to purchase any such subsidy, rights, or privileges from any person or persons, company or companies, corporation or corporations, and to carry out, exercise or comply with any such arrangements, rights and privileges:

(12.) To sell, assign, transfer, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of or otherwise deal with all or any of the property or rights of the Company:

(13.) To borrow or raise by issue upon bonds, debentures or bills of exchange, promissory notes or other obligations or securities of the Company, or to mortgage or pledge all or any of the Company's assets, income or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing such debentures or bonds; and such bonds or mortgages may be in favour of such person or persons, trustee or trustees:

(14.) To carry out any of its objects, either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by themselves or through any person or company acting as agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise, and either as principal, agent, trustee, contractor or otherwise:

(15.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to this Company, or carrying on business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to amalgamate, enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits with any other company or person carrying on, or about to carry on, business similar altogether or in part to this Company:

(16.) And to do all things such as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of these objects.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this sixth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

To sell, improve, manage, develop, mortgage, exchange, let on rent, royalty, tribute, share of profits, or otherwise, grant licences, easements, and other rights in respect of, and over, and in any other manner deal with or dispose of the undertaking and all or any of the property for the time being of the Company:

(i.) To obtain, acquire, and dispose of any concessions, or authorisations, of any Government, municipal body, or other authority, for any works or undertaking which the Company may desire to promote or carry on, and to obtain the promulgation of any laws or decrees which the Company may think necessary or expedient for or in respect of any such works or undertakings:

(j.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, commercial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company, as the Company may think fit:

(k.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for any of the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company:

(l.) To purchase, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, and to hold the shares, stocks, or obligations of any company, society or undertaking whatever, or the stock or securities of any Government or State, whether British, Colonial or Foreign, and, upon a distribution of assets or division of profits, to distribute any such shares, stocks or obligations amongst the members of this Company in specie:

(m.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, indorse and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures, or debenture stock, bills of exchange, promissory notes, or obligations and negotiable instruments:

(n.) To lend or invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required, and to make advances for the purposes of the Company on stocks, shares, or other securities, and on property of all kinds:

(o.) To sell, let, develop, dispose of, or otherwise deal with the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company, including the granting of powers to work the Company's patents upon any terms, with power to accept as a consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(p.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on, or about to carry on, any business which the Company is authorised to carry on:

(q.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incident to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, or any other company, and the issue of the capital of this or any other company, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for or placing shares, and to apply at the cost of the Company to the Federal Parliament, the Provincial Legislature, and to the Government of any of the Provinces or Territories of Canada, for any extension of the Company's powers:

(r.) To build, purchase, lease, construct, complete or otherwise acquire, equip, manage, maintain, control ships and steamships and operate and use the same, between ports in British Columbia and on navigable waters in the said Province:

(s.) To acquire, maintain and operate lines of transportation by land, by means of stages, waggons, and pack trains:

(t.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

EXTRA-PROVINCIAL COMPANIES.

LICENCE AUTHOURISING AN EXTRA-PROVINCIAL COMPANY TO CARRY ON BUSINESS.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CANADA :
PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA. §
No. 25/97.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that the "The British Columbia (Rossland and Slocan) Syndicate, Limited," is authorised and licensed to carry on business within the Province of British Columbia, and to carry out or effect all or any of the objects hereinafter set forth to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of British Columbia extends.

The head office of the Company is situate at 28, Bridge Row, in the City of London, England.

The amount of the capital of the Company is £25,000, divided into 25,000 shares of £1 each.

The head office of the Company in this Province is situate at Rossland, and Anthony John McMillan, J. L. G. Abbott and C. B. Macneill, whose addresses are Rossland, B. C., are the attorneys for the Company.

The objects for which the Company has been established and so licensed are:—

(1.) To adopt and carry into effect, with or without modification, an agreement which has already been prepared and is expressed to be made between Geo. Sydney Waterlow and John Geale Dickson, of the one part, and Aldridge Henry Furze, on behalf of the Company, of the other part, and is to be signed immediately after the incorporation of the Company, and a copy whereof has for the purpose of identification been subscribed by Mr. Geo. T. Robinson, a Solicitor of the Supreme Court:

(2.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire, work, exercise, develop, and turn to account, sell, dispose of, or otherwise deal with any mines, mining workings, mining claims, alluvial ground in any part of the world, or any interests in the same, and generally in property supposed to contain minerals or precious stones, and undertakings connected therewith:

(3.) To enter into agreements to purchase or acquire mineral lands in the Colony of British Columbia.

(4.) To search for, examine, prospect, and explore farms, lands, mines, minerals, ores, mining rights, and claims in British Columbia and other parts of the world; to search for and obtain information as to mines, mining districts, mining claims, water claims, water rights and any other rights, claims and property; to examine, investigate and secure the titles to farms, lands, mines, minerals, ores, and mining or other rights and claims in British Columbia and any other parts of the world; to employ and send to British Columbia or elsewhere, and to pay the fees, costs, charges and expenses of agents, including persons and corporations, mining expert, legal counsel, and all persons useful, or supposed to be useful, in examining, investigating and exploring farms, lands, mines, minerals, ores, mining and other rights and claims in British Columbia and elsewhere, or in examining, investigating and securing the title to farms, lands, mines, minerals, ores, mining or other rights and claims in British Columbia and elsewhere; to print, publish, advertise and circulate reports, maps, plans, prospectuses and documents of every kind whatsoever, directly or indirectly relating, or supposed to relate, to farms, lands, mines, minerals, ores and mining and other rights, concessions and claims in British Columbia and elsewhere, or the title thereto, or to the organization, operations and objects of this Company, or any other company:

(5.) To win, get, quarry, crush, wash, reduce, smelt, concentrate and amalgamate, dress, refine and prepare for market or otherwise deal with ore, metal, precious stones and mineral substances of all kinds, and to buy, sell, manufacture, refine and deal in ores, bullion, specie, or coin and precious metals, minerals, plant, machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions and things capable of being used in connection with metallurgical operations or required by workmen or others employed by the Company, and to carry on any other metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects in British Columbia, Great Britain or elsewhere:

(6.) To acquire by purchase or lease or otherwise, construct, execute, equip, work, carry on, develop, manage, sell, lease, let, turn to account, deal in, aid in, subscribe towards, and make arrangements concerning lands or other property, including water and water rights, works for winning, crushing, and otherwise treating and rendering merchantable, and storing and shipping ores and minerals, and for carrying out draining and other operations in connection with mines and lands, and concerning electric power or lighting works, telegraph and telephone lines, cables and works, railways, tramways, wire tramways, or other means of communication and appliances of a similar nature, irrigation, improvements, water and gas supply and power works, drainage and sanitary works, mills, and other buildings and structures, works and conveniences of every description, whether in British Columbia or elsewhere, and any other operations, trades, businesses and undertakings (whether upon the mines, lands and properties of the Company or not) as may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value or render profitable any of the Company's rights or property, and any option, right or interest connected with the same:

(7.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, develop, hold, sell, exchange, turn to account, dispose of, and deal in any real or personal property of every description, and particularly any landed property, buildings, hereditaments, and any interest or option in, or rights over, landed property, whether in British Columbia or elsewhere, and to develop the resources of and turn to account the lands for the time being of the Company in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by clearing, draining, irrigating, paving, fencing, planting, building, furnishing, letting on lease, farming, grazing and mining, and by promoting and assisting immigration and establishing towns and settlements:

(8.) To work and carry on all or any mines, works and properties from time to time in the possession of the Company, in such manner as may be determined; to erect all necessary mills and machinery and appliances, smelting works, laboratories, workshops, dwelling houses, and other buildings; construct, maintain and alter canals, railways, water-courses, tramways, telegraph lines, reservoirs, wells, aqueducts, gas and water-works, and supply of electric energy, wharves, piers and other works of every nature and description, and to purchase, rent, hire, or charter engines, wagons, steam or sailing ships:

(9.) To carry on the businesses of colliery and quarry proprietors, builders, coal and stone and lime and timber and building material and machinery merchants, engineers, contractors, importers and exporters, and any other businesses, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, or in any way benefit the Company:

(10.) To act as agents for the purchase, sale, improvement, development, management, and dealing with property, including mining enterprises and business concerns and undertakings, and generally to transact and undertake all kinds of agency business:

(11.) To construct, erect, and maintain any works, mills, machinery or buildings:

(12.) To buy, sell, deal in, and manufacture all kinds of goods, chattels and effects:

(13.) To acquire, by purchase or otherwise, apply for, obtain, work, turn to account, deal in, experiment in regard to, improve, and grant licences of any inventions, patents, patent rights, trade marks, licences, or privileges of similar character:

(14.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, rights and liabilities of any person or persons, partnership, association or corporation:

(15.) To pay for any property acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by, or obligation of, the Company, by the issue of shares of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company:

(16.) To acquire by charter, grant, purchase or otherwise, concessions of any property or privileges from any government, British, Colonial, or foreign, and to perform and fulfil the terms and conditions thereof, and to obtain any Act of Parliament, or law, or order of any Colonial or Foreign Legislature or

Government, for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect:

(17.) To promote or form, or assist in the promotion or formation of, any company or companies, either in Great Britain or elsewhere, having objects wholly or in part similar to those of this Company, or for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, holding, working, or otherwise dealing with all or any of the property or liabilities of this Company, or in which this Company is interested, or for any other purpose, with power generally to assist such companies, and in particular by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses thereof, or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking shares therein, or by lending money thereto, upon debentures or otherwise, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(18.) To lend and advance money upon the security or supposed security of farms, lands, mines, minerals, claims, mining or other rights, concessions, or claims in British Columbia and elsewhere, or without security:

(19.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell and give guarantees by way of underwriting, or otherwise in relation to the stock, shares, debentures, obligations and securities of any company, or of any supreme, municipal, public or local board or authority in British Columbia or elsewhere, provided always that the funds of this Company shall not be employed in purchasing or acquiring its own shares, or in loans upon the security thereof:

(20.) To purchase, sell, improve, develop, manage and deal with mining and other properties either as principals or agents, and generally to carry on and undertake all kinds of agency business, and to pay for the same, if so arranged, by the issue of shares of this or any other Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other Company:

(21.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concession, co-operation, or otherwise, with any person or persons, partnership, association or corporation, and to lend money, to guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist, any such person or persons, company or companies, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(22.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with, or to procure for this or any other Company, a legal recognition, domicile and status in any country, state or territory, in which any of its property, estate, effects or rights may be situated, or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint a local board or agent or agents (with such powers as the Directors of the Company may determine) to represent the Company in any such country, state or territory:

(23.) To enter into any arrangements with any governments and authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's interests, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Governments and authorities, or take over from other persons or companies possessing the same, any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out and utilise the same, and to obtain, or assist in obtaining, any Acts of Parliament, or sanctions, or orders of any such governments and authorities which the Company may deem proper, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to prejudice the Company's interests:

(24.) To invest money, and particularly by way of advance or loan, with or without interest, to any person or persons, or corporation, upon the security of any property and securities whatsoever, or without security, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(25.) To raise or borrow or secure the repayment of money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property and assets of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(26.) To make, draw, accept, indorse, discount, execute, issue and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(27.) To pay all expenses of and incident to the formation, promotion and establishment of this or any other company, or the conduct of its business, and to renunciate or make donations to (by cash or other assets, or by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares, or in any other manner) any person or persons, company or companies, for services rendered, or to be rendered, in introducing any property or business to the Company, or in placing, or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing, of any shares, debentures, or other securities, of this or any other company, or for any other reason which the Directors of the Company may think proper:

(28.) To establish and maintain agencies of the Company in British Columbia and in any colony or foreign state, and to do all acts necessary to procure the Company to be duly constituted or incorporated and registered, or recognised as a company with limited liability, in British Columbia and in any colony or foreign state where the Company may carry on business:

(29.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, improve, manage, develop, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking and property and rights of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares, debentures or securities or property of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of, or other dealing with, the whole or part of the property, estate, effects and rights of the Company amongst the members of the Company, by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares, or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same, as the Company may determine:

(30.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among the members in specie or otherwise, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court where necessary:

(31.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them:

(32.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees or otherwise.

(c.) To carry on all kinds of promotion business and in particular to form, constitute, float, lend money to assist and control any companies, partnerships, associations, or undertakings whatsoever:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, licence, or otherwise, absolutely or conditionally, the rights either generally or exclusively, over any area or areas of or in all or any patent rights or processes or mechanical or other contrivances useful, or supposed to be useful, for any of the purposes of the Company, and to deal with or dispose of the same or any interest therein respectively:

(e.) To lay out towns and villages on the lands acquired or controlled by the Company, and to construct, maintain, alter, make, and work railways, tramways, telegraph lines, canals, reservoirs, wells, aqueducts, roads, streets, hotels, boarding houses, dwelling houses, factories, shops, stores, gas and water-works, piers, wharves, buildings, machinery, and other works and appliances of every nature and description, which may be expedient or useful, or deemed to be expedient or useful for the purposes of the Company, and to contribute to the cost of making, providing, and carrying on, and working the same:

(f.) To carry on any business, the carrying on of which the Company may think directly or indirectly conducive to the development of any property in which it is interested:

(g.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or otherwise deal with, all or any part of the property of the Company:

(h.) To prospect, explore, and develop the resources of the said lands and hereditaments by building, planting, clearing, mining, and otherwise dealing with the same, and to stock the same or other lands, to cut and to sell timber, and generally to mine and carry on all sorts of mining operations in the Dominion of Canada, or any other part of the globe:

(i.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, settle, improve, colonize, farm, and cultivate lands and hereditaments in the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere:

(j.) To stock the same or other lands, and to breed and deal in all kinds of stock, cattle, sheep and produce:

(k.) To work and carry on all or any mines, works, and properties from time to time in possession of the said Company, in such manner as the Directors, for the time being, may determine: to erect all necessary mills and machinery, and appliances, smelting works, laboratories, workshops, dwelling houses and other buildings; construct, maintain and alter canals, railways, watercourses, tramways, telegraph lines, or any other lines or system of communication, whether by telegram or telephone, phonograph, phonophone, or otherwise, by electricity, or by pneumatic force or otherwise, reservoirs, wells, aqueducts, gas and water works, drainage works, irrigation works, wharves, piers, and other works of every nature and description, purchase, rent, hire, or charter wagons, steam or sailing ships, to enter into and carry out such contracts and arrangements as may be deemed necessary and desirable to enable the Company to carry on its business, and for the general conduct and management of its affairs, and the doing of all such other things as may be found incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, whether in the Dominion of Canada, Great Britain or elsewhere:

(l.) To buy, sell, manufacture and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels and effects capable of being used or required by the Company or its workmen, or by any other persons who may settle on the property of the Company, or by others, and for that purpose to carry on the business of a general shopkeeper or merchant:

(m.) To purchase, build, charter, equip, load (either on commission or otherwise), sell, repair, let out to hire and trade with steam or other ships, boats and vessels of all kinds. To carry on the business of carriers by land and water:

(n.) To acquire by grant, purchase or otherwise, concessions of any property or privileges from any government, British, Colonial or foreign, and to perform and fulfil the terms and conditions:

(o.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or law or order of any Colonial or foreign legislature or government for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect:

(p.) To promote, form and register other companies, in England or in any Colony, dependency, foreign country, state, or territory, for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for all or any of the objects mentioned in this Memorandum, or for advancing directly or indirectly the objects or interests thereof, and to take or otherwise acquire and to underwrite and hold shares, debentures or other securities in or of any such Company, and to guarantee the payment of any debentures or other securities issued by any such Company:

(q.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares, debentures, bonds, or other securities of or in any other Company, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(r.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests or co-operation with any person or Company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction, capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any such Company. To aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, and in particular friendly societies:

(s.) To carry on all kinds of financial or banking business, and in particular to negotiate loans and advances, to offer for subscription, place, buy, deal in, make merchantable, sell and dispose of ores, minerals, goods, bullion, specie, and valuables of all kinds, and merchandise generally in the Dominion of Canada, Great Britain, or elsewhere, and to receive money on deposit and to collect revenue of all kinds:

(t.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company. To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court, where necessary. To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company. To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(u.) To make, accept, indorse and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments. To lend money and, in particular, to persons having dealings with the Company. To raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future) including its uncalled capital, or any specified portion thereof. To guarantee the performance of contracts by members of, or persons having dealings with, the Company:

(v.) To acquire patent rights and privileges in the United Kingdom or any other country or colony or state, for any purposes deemed to be useful for the Company, and to resell the same or turn the same to account by manufacturing thereunder, granting licences or otherwise :

(w.) To lend money to any company, partnership, person, or association upon security of their or his undertaking, property, estate, assets, and effects, or any part thereof, upon such terms as may be deemed expedient, and to take such security either in the shape of mortgages, mortgage debentures or in any other form, or to lend money in Canada or Great Britain or elsewhere, with or without security. To make donations to such persons and in such cases as may seem expedient, and to subscribe for any purposes, whether charitable or benevolent, or for any public, general or useful object :

(x.) To pay the costs, charges and expenses of, or in connection with the formation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any person or persons for services rendered or to be rendered to the Company either in cash or in shares of the Company, either wholly or partly paid up :

(y.) To establish and maintain agencies of this Company in any colony or foreign state, and to procure the Company to be registered or incorporated in any colony or foreign state :

(z.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects either alone or in partnership, or in conjunction with any person or other association, and either as principals or agents, and including a power to pay brokerage or commission for services rendered in obtaining or guaranteeing or underwriting capital for the Company or otherwise.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this eleventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven.

(g.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company :

(h.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint venture, reciprocal concession or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted, so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company; and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same :

(i.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(j.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company :

(k.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business :

(l.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner, as may from time to time be determined :

(m.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons :

(n.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such other manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital :

(o.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business :

(p.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants and other negotiable or transferable instruments :

(q.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification in the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests :

(r.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company :

(s.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, or either alone or in conjunction with others:

(t.) To issue fully paid or partly paid shares of the Company in payment or part payment for the purchase of any property to be acquired by the Company, or for any other purpose:

(u.) To enter into any arrangements with any governments or authorities, supreme, municipal or otherwise, which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think fit or desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(v.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company, having objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(w.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any foreign country or place, and to procure the Company to be domiciled in accordance with the laws and constitution of any country or state in which any of its operations may be carried on:

(x.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(y.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive, or such as the Company may think to be incidental or conducive, to the attainment of the above objects.

LICENCE AUTHORIZING AN EXTRA-PROVINCIAL COMPANY TO CARRY ON BUSINESS.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CANADA: }
PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA, }
No. 26/97.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that the "British Columbia Agency, Limited," is authorised and licensed to carry on business within the Province of British Columbia, and to carry out or effect all or any of the objects hereinafter set forth to which the legislative authority of the Legislature of British Columbia extends.

The head office of the Company is situate at No. 15 and 16, George Street, Mansion House, City of London, England.

The amount of the capital of the Company is £100,000, divided into 100,000 shares of £1 each.

The head office of the Company in this Province is situate at No. 614, Hastings Street, Vancouver, and Barclay Bonthrone, Mining Engineer, of same address, is the attorney for the Company.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:

(a.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire freehold and other farms, properties, mines, and mineral properties, and also grants, concessions, leases, claims, licences, easements or authorities of and over mines, land, mineral properties, mining, water, and other rights in British Columbia or elsewhere, and either absolutely, optionally, or conditionally, and either solely or jointly with others:

(b.) To prospect for, open, work, explore, develop and maintain diamond, gold, silver, copper, coal, iron, and other mines, mineral and other rights, properties, and works, and to carry on and conduct the business of raising, crushing, washing, smelting, reducing and amalgamating ores, metals and minerals, and to render the same merchantable and fit for use:

(c.) To cultivate lands and properties, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to develop the resources thereof by draining, clearing, fencing, planting, pasturing, farming, building or improving the same:

(d.) To carry on the business of farmers, graziers, planters, miners, coal and iron masters, quarry owners, brickmakers, builders, contractors, merchants, dealers in gold and silver, diamonds and other precious metals and stones, importers and exporters, bankers, ship-owners, wharfingers, carriers, warehousemen, hotel keepers, store keepers, publishers, printers, agents, and general merchants, and to buy and sell and deal in every commodity, substance and product:

(e.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(f.) To negotiate loans, and to act as agents for the loan, payment, transmission, collection and investment of money, and for the management of property:

(g.) To obtain and furnish accurate information in reference to the mining and other districts of British Columbia and elsewhere, and to act as agents between owners of mining and other properties in British Columbia and elsewhere and investors in Europe, and negotiate the sale of properties, and generally carry on an agency business:

(h.) To employ and pay mining experts, agents and other persons, partnerships, companies or corporations, and to organise, equip and dispatch expeditions for prospecting, exploring, reporting on, surveying, working and developing lands, farms, districts, territories and properties in British Columbia or elsewhere, and whether the same are the property of the Company or otherwise, and to colonize and assist in the colonization of the said lands, farms, districts, territories and property, and to promote emigration or immigration for that purpose, and to make advances to, and pay for or contribute to the expenses of, and otherwise assist any persons or company prospecting, acquiring, settling or farming, building or, mining or otherwise developing the said lands, farms, districts, territories and properties, or desirous of so doing:

(i.) To construct, erect, maintain and improve, or aid in and subscribe towards the construction, erection, maintenance and improvement of railways, tramways, roads, waterways, waterworks, shafts, wharves, public or private buildings, parks, telegraphs, electric works, gas works, machinery and other works and appliances:

(j.) To promote, make, provide, acquire, take on lease or agreement, lease, let, grant running powers over, work, use and dispose of railways, tramways, waterways, and other roads and ways, and to contribute to the expenses of promoting, making, providing, acquiring, working and using the same:

(k.) To establish or promote, or concur in establishing or promoting, any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of, or the carrying on any business or operation which the Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stock or securities of, and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by or any other obligation of any such company:

(l.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(m.) To enter into partnership or any joint-purse arrangement, or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventure or co-operation with or agency for any company, firm or person carrying on or engaged in or proposing to carry on or engage in any business or transaction within the objects of the Company, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company:

(n.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(o.) To establish and promote, or concur in establishing and promoting associations, companies, syndicates and undertakings of all kinds, and to secure by underwriting or otherwise the subscription of any part of the capital of any such association, company, syndicate, or undertaking, and to pay or receive any commission, brokerage, or other remuneration in connection therewith:

(p.) To buy or otherwise acquire, issue, place, or sell, or otherwise deal in stocks, shares, bonds, debentures, tures, and securities of all kinds, and to give any guarantee or security in relation thereto, or otherwise:

(q.) To draw, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, bills of lading, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities:

(r.) To invest money at interest on the security of land of any tenure, buildings, farming stock, stocks, shares, securities, merchandise, and any other property in the United Kingdom, British Columbia, or elsewhere, and generally to lend and advance money to any persons or companies without security, or upon such securities and terms, and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient, and to guarantee the performance of any contract by any person or company:

(s.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction, or operation, whether mercantile, commercial, financial, manufacturing, trading or otherwise (except life assurance), as an individual capitalist may lawfully undertake and carry out:

(t.) To borrow or raise money for the purpose of the Company's business:

(u.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present and future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company; to issue debentures, mortgage debentures, and debenture stock, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable:

(v.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, and for such purpose to distinguish and separate capital from profits, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(w.) To procure the Company to be registered, incorporated, or otherwise duly constituted, if necessary or advisable, according to the law of any Colony or Dependency of the United Kingdom, or any foreign country:

(x.) To enter into any arrangements with any governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(y.) To establish and support, or aid in the establishment and support, of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit any of the employés or ex-employés of the Company, or any of the dependents or connections of any such persons, and to grant to any such persons, dependents or connections pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance thereof respectively, and generally to subscribe or guarantee money to or for charitable or benevolent objects, or to or for any exhibition, or to or for any public, general, or useful object:

(z.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to prejudice the Company's interests:

(z1.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in connection with others:

(z2.) To transfer to or otherwise cause to be vested in any company or person or persons all or any of the lands and property of the Company, to be held in trust for the Company, or on such trust, for working, developing, or disposing of the same as may be considered expedient:

(z3.) To pay the costs, charges, and expenses preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment and registration of the Company, and to remunerate, by commission, brokerage, or otherwise, any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in relation to the formation and establishment of the Company, or the conduct of its business, or placing, or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any shares in or debentures or other securities of the Company:

(z4.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them; and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph, or the name of the Company:

(z5.) And it is hereby declared that the word "Company" in this clause when not applied to this Company shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, political, mercantile, or otherwise, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and whether existing or hereafter to be formed.

The head office of the Company in this Province is situate at Wild Horse Creek, East Kootenay, and James W. R. Young, mining engineer, whose address is Wild Horse Creek, East Kootenay, is the attorney for the Company.

The objects for which the Company has been established are:

(1.) To purchase, take on lease, or underlease, or acquire by concession, licence, selection, location, or otherwise, any public or other lands suitable for building, for agricultural, or other purposes, or any water, or other rights, and any mines, mineral properties, concessions, claims, grants, rights, or other interests in lands, mines, waters, and mineral properties, in any part of the world; also buildings, plant, machinery, stores, tools, and other effects which may be deemed necessary or advisable for the purposes of the Company:

(2.) To search for, prospect, examine, and explore any territories and places in any part of the Province of British Columbia, and to employ and equip expeditions, explorers, experts, and other agents:

(3.) To work, explore, develop, and maintain the gold and other mines, mineral and other rights, lands, properties, and works of the Company, and to carry on and conduct the business of raising, crushing, washing, smelting, reducing and amalgamating ores, metals, and minerals in all its branches, and to render merchantable or fit for use ores, minerals, and other substances and products thereof, and precious stones to be obtained from the mines or properties of the Company; to purchase ores, and to crush, wash, smelt, reduce, and amalgamate the produce of any mines, whether belonging to this Company or not, and generally to carry on business as miners and metallurgists:

(4.) To plant, stock, farm, cultivate, erect houses, lay out lands for building purposes, and otherwise deal with any land and other property of the Company, and to develop the resources thereof, to manufacture and sell, or sell in an unmanufactured state, timber and other products, and to prospect for minerals in and develop any properties submitted to or proposed to be acquired by the Company; and to collect, store, and supply water for irrigation, mining, or other purposes:

(5.) To buy, sell, refine, and deal in bullion, specie, coin, and precious stones, and metals:

(6.) To carry on business as merchants, bankers, store keepers, miners, farmers, stockmen, graziers, carriers, builders and contractors, brick-makers, and all kinds of agency business, and any other kind of business which seems calculated, directly or indirectly, to further the working and development of any concessions, rights, or property of the Company, or otherwise to benefit the Company, and to undertake and execute any trusts the undertaking whereof may seem desirable, and either gratuitously or otherwise:

(7.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(8.) To purchase, construct, carry out, maintain, improve, manage, work, control and superintend any hotels, shops, stores, saw-mills, roads, ways, tramways, railways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, canals, docks, wharves, water-courses, water and other mains, hydraulic works, electric works for lighting power or otherwise, stamps, crushing works, factories, dwellings for workpeople, warehouses and other works, transports, postal arrangements, and other conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of the Company's objects, to erect and maintain a line or lines of telegraphs or telephones, and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise assist or take part in any such operations, and to carry on the business of common carriers:

(9.) To acquire and deal with patents, patent rights, or licences, to use any such patents or rights in relation to any machine or operation used in connection with mining metallurgy, or any operations carried on, or which can be carried on, by the Company, and to grant licences for the use of or to sell such rights or any of them:

(10.) To enter into any arrangement with any government or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, and to obtain from any such government or authority all concessions, rights, conveniences and privileges which may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(11.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concession or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares, or stock in or securities of, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares or securities:

(12.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects and capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's property or rights for the time being:

(13.) To register the Company, if required, in any foreign country or state, and to take such other steps as may be necessary to give the Company, so far as may be, the same rights and privileges in such foreign country or state as are possessed by local or other companies or partnership of a like character therein:

(14.) To form, constitute, or register in any foreign country, state or territory or elsewhere, any company or companies in which the liability of the members shall be limited to the amount of their stock or shares, and to transfer to or vest in or cause to be transferred to or vested in, such company or companies in trust for or on behalf of the Company any lands, mines and mineral properties, rights or claims of the Company, and to take all steps requisite to render such transfer or vesting valid and effectual:

(15.) To establish and support or to aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, and conveniences calculated to benefit persons employed by the Company or having dealings with the Company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for public, general, or useful objects, and to make donations to such persons and in such cases as may seem expedient:

(16.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and in case of shares either wholly or in part paid up. To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company; and to underwrite or subscribe the capital or part of the capital of any such Company so formed in or out of England:

(17.) To distribute any property of the Company among the members in specie:

(18.) To invest and deal with moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(19.) To lend money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by members of or persons having dealings with the Company:

(20.) To raise, or borrow, or secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular by the issue of debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, and charged or not charged, upon the whole or any part of the property of the Company both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(21.) To draw, accept, indorse, and issue negotiable instruments of all kinds:

(22.) To remunerate any person or persons for services rendered or to be rendered in underwriting, or placing or assisting to place any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(23.) To do all or any of the aforesaid things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through or in the names of agents, sub-contractors, trustees or otherwise:

(24.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any of the property and rights of the Company:

(25.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses attending the issue of any circular or notice, or the printing, stamping, and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the shareholders:

(26.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "Company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere.

(f.) To buy, sell, barter, import, export, manipulate, prepare for market and deal in merchandise of all kinds, and generally to carry on business as merchants, importers and exporters :

(g.) To carry on business as miners, merchants, storekeepers, carriers, builders, engineers and contractors, and any other kind of business which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to further the working and development of, or turn to account any concessions, rights or property of the Company, or otherwise to benefit the Company :

(h.) To lend money upon the security of or to invest in or purchase, or otherwise to acquire and hold, sell, transfer, pledge and deal in the mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, securities, scrip, funds, preference or other shares, or stocks of any sovereign, state, government, municipality or other public authority, whether in the United Kingdom or in any colony or foreign state, or of any corporation, company, association, trust, undertaking, or body incorporated or established under British, colonial or foreign law, or to any partnership or person :

(i.) To acquire any such securities or investments as before-mentioned by original subscription, tender, participation in syndicates or otherwise, and whether or not fully paid up, and to make payments thereon as called up, or otherwise to acquire any such securities or investments in excess of the moneys for the time being proposed to be invested, and to sell or otherwise dispose of any excess thereof; to subscribe for the same either conditionally or otherwise, and generally to sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of any securities or investments of the Company acquired or agreed so to be; to invest in or acquire, by re-purchase or otherwise, any securities or investments of the kinds before enumerated, and to vary the securities and investments of the Company from time to time :

(j.) To promote and pay the expenses of promoting joint stock and other companies, and to act as agents for such companies, and any corporations, states or municipalities, whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, in the issue of their shares, stocks, bonds, debentures and debenture stock, and the undertaking and guaranteeing of such issues, and the guaranteeing to the holders of the due payment of the principal and interest of debentures and debenture stock, and the making of loans upon the security thereof, either to private persons or public companies :

(k.) To buy or otherwise acquire, hold in trust, make advances upon, sell or otherwise dispose of any of the securities or investments of the kinds before mentioned :

(l.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, rights or privileges which the Company may think suitable or convenient for any purposes of its business, and to erect and construct buildings and works of all kinds :

(m.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association or company possessed of property suitable for any of the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company :

(n.) To borrow or raise, or secure the payment of money, and for those purposes to mortgage or charge the undertaking and all or any part of the property and rights of the Company present or after acquired, including uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bonds or other obligations, bills of exchange, promissory notes or other negotiable instruments :

(o.) To sell, let, develop, dispose of or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company upon any terms, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any other company :

(p.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incident to the formation, registration and advertising of or raising money for the Company, and the issue of its capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for or placing shares, and to apply at the cost of the Company to Parliament for any extention of the Company's powers:

(q.) To carry out all or any of the foregoing objects as principals or agents or in partnership or conjunction with any other person, firm, association or company, and in any part of the world :

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

(d.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(e.) To construct, carry out, maintain, improve, manage, work, control, and superintend any roads, ways, tramways, mines, collieries, wharves, piers, jetties, stores, warehouses, and other works and conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of the Company's objects, and to contribute to, subsidise, or otherwise assist or take part in any such operations:

(f.) To enter into any arrangement with any governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise, and to obtain from any such government or authority all rights, concessions, and privileges that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them:

(g.) To enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal concession or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in or securities of, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares or securities:

(h.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects, and capable of being conveniently dealt with in connection with any of the Company's property or rights for the time being, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, licensees, patents, machinery, ships, barges, rolling stock, collieries, wells, springs, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(i.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other Company, having objects altogether, or in part, similar to those of this Company:

(k.) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose, which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(m.) To lend and advance money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by members of or persons having dealings with the Company:

(n.) To borrow or raise money upon such terms and in such manner as may seem expedient, and in particular by mortgage or the issue of debentures or debenture stock, charged on the general undertaking of the Company and its uncalled capital, or upon any particular undertaking or property of the Company, and so that such debentures or debenture stock may be redeemable or irredeemable and perpetual or terminable and payable to bearer or otherwise:

(o.) To purchase or sell, draw, make, accept, indorse and discount bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments in the course and for the purposes of the business of the Company:

(p.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered in placing any shares or securities of the Company, or in or about the establishment of the Company, or in obtaining or facilitating the obtaining of concessions:

(q.) To do all or any of the above things, either as principals, agents, contractors or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees, or otherwise:

(r.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any of the property and rights of the Company including its uncalled capital:

(s.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "Company" in this cause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and so that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except as otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted by reference to any other paragraph or to the Company's name:

(t.) To incorporate or register the Company in accordance with the laws of the Dominion of Canada, or of any of the Provinces into which it is or may be divided, or of the United States, or of any other country or state where the business of the Company may be carried on.

The head office of the Company in this Province is situate in the City of Rossland, and Lionel Haubury Webber, gentleman, whose address is Rossland, is the attorney for the Company.

The objects for which the Company has been established and so licensed are:

(a.) To enter into the agreement referred to in clause 2 of the Articles of Association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification:

(b.) To purchase, take on lease or otherwise acquire any mines, mining rights and metalliferous land in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any interest therein, and to explore, work, exercise, develop and turn to account the same:

(c.) To crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, amalgamate, manipulate and prepare for market ore, metal and mineral substances of all kinds, and to carry on any other metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(d.) To buy, sell, manufacture and deal in minerals, plant, machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions and things capable of being used in connection with metallurgical operations or required by workmen and others employed by the Company:

(e.) To construct, carry out, maintain, improve, manage, work, control and superintend any roads, ways, tramways, railways, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, aqueducts, wharves, furnaces, saw mills, crushing works, hydraulic works, electrical works, factories, warehouses, ships and other works and conveniences which may seem directly or indirectly conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and to contribute to, subsidise or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations:

(f.) To carry on any other businesses, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the Company's objects, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(g.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, concessions, and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights and information so acquired:

(h.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(i.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any foreign country or place, or in any colony or dependency of the British Crown:

(j.) To enter into any arrangement with any government or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, concessions and privileges that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(k.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concession or co-operation, with any person or company carrying on, or about to carry on, any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in, or securities of, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with such shares or securities:

(l.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects, and capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the Company's property or rights for the time being, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, licences, patents, machinery, ships, barges, rolling stock, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(m.) To establish and support, or to aid in the establishment and support of, associations, institutions or conveniences calculated to benefit persons employed by the Company or having dealings with the Company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general or useful object:

(n.) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for cash or for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(o.) To promote any other company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(p.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(q.) To lend money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by members of or persons having dealings with the Company, and to draw, accept, indorse and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, warrants and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and to allow customers and others to draw on the Company to such an extent and on such terms as may be arranged; and to receive money on deposit at interest or otherwise, and to discount bills, and generally to carry on business as bankers:

(r.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution:

(s.) To raise, or borrow, or secure the payment of money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular by mortgage, or by issue of debentures or debenture stock, whether perpetual or otherwise, and charged or not charged upon the whole or any part of the property of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(t.) To remunerate any parties for services rendered or to be rendered in placing, or assisting to place, any shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the conduct of the business thereof:

(u.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(v.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst its members in specie:

(w.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, subcontractors, trustees or otherwise:

(x.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "Company" in this clause, when not used in reference to the Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

PRIVATE BILLS

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

57. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with the notices published. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House a sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by rule 59, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

65. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches by 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. One hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

Dated 16th November, 1897.

PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

EXTRACTS FROM RULES OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF COMMONS, RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

ALL applications for Private Bills require a notice over the signature and address of the applicants or their solicitors, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, published by advertisement as follows, viz.:—In the Canada Gazette, and in one newspaper published in the County, District, Union of Counties or Territory, affected by the proposed measure, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest County, District or Territory in which a newspaper is published. In the Provinces of Quebec and Manitoba the notice must be published in the like manner in the English and French languages. All notices shall be continued for a period of at least two months during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition. Marked copies of (all) the newspapers, endorsed “Application for Private Bills,” containing the first and last insertion of such notice shall be sent to the Clerk of each House.

In the case of an application for the erection of a toll bridge the notice shall also state the proposed rates of toll, the nature of the structure, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers, etc.

A copy of the Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House in which the Bill is to originate at least eight days before the meeting of Parliament, with a sum sufficient to pay for translating and printing the same; and a further sum of two hundred dollars and the cost of printing the Act with the Statutes will be levied immediately after the second reading of the Bill.

Petitions for Private Bills must be presented to the Senate and House of Commons within the first three weeks of the session.

Private Bills are to be presented to the Senate or House of Commons within the first four weeks of the session.

EDOUARD J. LANGEVIN,
Clerk of the Senate.
JNO. GEO. BOURINOT,
Clerk of the House of Commons.

SPECIAL RULE OF THE SENATE.

49. (c.) When a Bill is to operate in more than one Province, Territory or District the notice shall be published in The Canada Gazette and in a leading newspaper in each Province, Territory or District in which the Bill is to operate.

EDOUARD J. LANGEVIN,
Clerk of the Senate.

EXTRACTS FROM SPECIAL RULES OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Private Bills shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided by such Bills.

Private Bills in amendment of Acts, or for Acts incorporating railway companies, shall be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill adopted by the House, copies of which may be obtained from the Clerk.

Provisions varying the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets, and when revised by the proper officers, shall be so printed.

Sections of existing Acts proposed to be amended shall be reprinted in full, with the amendments inserted in their proper places and between brackets.

Private Bills which are not drawn in accordance with these rules shall be returned to the promoters to be re-drawn before being revised and printed.

Exceptional provisions shall be clearly specified in the notice of application.

A certified map or plan showing the location of any proposed line of railway, also the lines existing or authorised work of a similar character within, or in any way affecting, the district which the proposed work is intended to serve, and an exhibit showing the amount of capital proposed to be raised for the undertaking, and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same shall be filed with the Railway Committee at least one week before the consideration of the Bill.

SPECIAL ORDER OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Resolved, that the Clerk of the House do have a copy of the new Rule 49 sent to those persons giving notice in The Canada Gazette of their intention to apply to Parliament for the passing of a Private Bill, together with a notification that the said rule will be strictly adhered to for the future:—

49. Petitions for Private Bills shall only be received by the House within the first three weeks of the session, and Private Bills may only be presented to the House within the first four weeks of the session, and it shall be the duty of any Committee to which any Private Bill may be referred to consider and report the same to the House with all convenient speed.

2. That it be an instruction to all Committees on Private Bills, in the event of promoters not being ready to proceed with their measures when the same have been twice called on two separate occasions for consideration by the Committee, that such measure shall be reported back to the House forthwith, together with a statement of the facts and with the recommendation that such Bills be withdrawn.

JNO. GEO. BOURINOT,
no18
Clerk of the House of Commons.

GRAND FORKS CITY BY-LAWS.

BY-LAW No. 13.

To confirm and direct the execution of a certain Agreement between the City of Grand Forks and T. P. Coffee, Esq., of the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, for the sale to the said T. P. Coffee of certain Debentures of the said Municipality.

[Passed December 1st, A.D. 1897.]

WHEREAS By-Law No. 9 of this Municipality, dated and passed on the 6th day of November, A.D. 1897, authorises the issue and sale by the City of debentures to the amount of $20,000, for the purposes therein stated:

And whereas T. P. Coffee, of the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, has agreed to purchase the said debentures upon terms agreed upon by the said City and the said T. P. Coffee:

And whereas an indenture of agreement, embodying the said terms, has been arrived at and prepared, and has been read and approved by this Council, one original duplicate of which agreement is hereto annexed, marked with the letter "A":

Therefore the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Grand Forks, in Council assembled, enacts as follows:

1. That the said agreement in duplicate, dated the 1st day of December, A.D. 1897, one original duplicate of which is hereto annexed, marked with the letter "A," made and entered into between the Corporation of the City of Grand Forks, of the one part, and T. P. Coffee, of the other part, be signed and executed, in duplicate, on behalf of the Municipality, by the Mayor and City Clerk, and that the common seal of the Corporation be affixed thereto.

2. This by-law shall take effect on, from, and after the passing thereof.

Passed in open Council this 30th day of November, A.D. 1897.

Reconsidered and finally adopted, signed and sealed this 1st day of December, A.D. 1897.

BY-LAW No. 15.

A By-Law to provide for the subdivision of Grand Forks into Wards.

THE Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Grand Forks enacts as follows:

1. The City of Grand Forks shall be and the same is hereby divided into two Wards, to be known as the North and South Wards.

2. There shall be included within the boundaries of the North Ward all that portion of the said City, except as hereinafter provided, lying on the northerly side of a line drawn through the centre of Bridge Street, and extending to the easterly boundary of the said City, excepting thereout that portion of the said City known as the "Van Ness Addition."

3. There shall be included within the boundaries of the South Ward all that portion of the said City lying on the southerly side of a line drawn through the centre of Bridge Street and extending to the easterly and westerly boundaries of the said City, and including that portion of the said City known as the "Van Ness Addition."

4. The number of Aldermen to be elected by each Ward shall be three.

Read first, second and third times December 3rd, A.D. 1897.

Reconsidered and finally adopted and passed December 4th, A.D. 1897.
